MEMORANDUM FOR: Agency Records Management Officers

SUBJECT : Micrographics Bulletin #6
Control Warnings for Dissemination of Foreign Intelligence

REFERENCE : Director of Central Intelligence Directive
1/7 (5 Oct. 75)

1. Referent DCID "establishes certain common controls and procedures for the use and dissemination of foreign intelligence to ensure that, while facilitating the interchange of information for intelligence purposes, there will be adequate protection of foreign intelligence sources and methods." Use of specific markings is directed, such as, "Warning Notice--Sensitive Intelligence Sources and Methods Involved," "Dissemination and Extraction of Information Controlled by Originator," "USIB Departments Only," "Not Releasable to Contractors or Contractor/Consultants," "Caution--Proprietary Information Involved," and "Not Releasable to Foreign Nationals." DCID 1/7 also authorizes the use of certain abbreviations (WNINTEL, USIBONLY, NOCONTRACT, PROFIN, REL) for specific purposes.

2. Agency policy will be to include in the eye-readable title area of microfiche or aperture cards any appropriate control warning(s) if space in this title area permits. If space does not permit, use of the following codes or representations of the protracted control warning will be used:

STAT

SECURITY POLICY GUIDANCE ON LIAISON RELATIONSHIPS WITH FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ORGANIZATIONS AND FOREIGN SECURITY SERVICES

(Effective 19 November 1975)

Pursuant to the provisions of NSCID No. 1, and in order to provide security guidance to representatives of US departments, agencies and military commands who conduct, supervise or coordinate liaison with foreign intelligence and security services, the following is established:

1. The fact of broad, general intelligence cooperation with countries or groups of countries with which the United States maintains formal military alliances or agreements (e.g., NATO) is unclassified.
2. The fact of intelligence cooperation between the United States and a specific governmental component in an allied country (see 1 above), or description of the nature of intelligence cooperation between the United States and any allied country is classified Secret unless a different classification is specified.
3. The fact of intelligence cooperation between the United States and specifically named foreign countries and governmental components thereof with which the United States is not allied is normally classified not less than Secret.
4. Details of or specifics concerning any intelligence exchange agreement will be classified according to content.
5. The identities of foreign governmental or military personnel who provide intelligence pursuant to such agreements or liaison relationships will be protected at the same level of classification which applies to the fact of the intelligence cooperation, or at such different level as may be required by their governments or individual circumstances.
6. Information classified in accordance with paragraphs 2, 3, 4 and 5 above shall not be released to any foreign country or its representatives except by the mutual agreement of the United States and the foreign country whose intelligence cooperation is involved.
